

2018 SPPI Conference

Partners in Planning

Save the Date!

Saskatchewan Professional Planners Institute (SPPI) is seeking presenters and delegates for the 2018 Conference to be held September 17-18 in Saskatoon. Students, municipal employees, consultants, and academics from all related professions are invited!

We are seeking presentations by our “Partners in Planning” to present on topics such as: Municipal Administration; Collaboration; Challenges and Innovation; Service Provision; Sustainability; and the Future, etc., at all scales of your work.

With this broad and flexible theme, we want to hear you share your successes and innovations!

Please let us know you are interested by sending in your questions or a brief description of your ideas for topics and presentation styles to info@sppi.ca. A formal call for proposals will follow in April this year, so please collaborate with your colleagues to help us put on our best event yet!

BONUS! The conference will be helping University of Saskatchewan School of Rural and Urban Planning celebrate 50 years!

SPPI is seeking presentations by our “Partners in Planning”:

Engineers
Municipal Administrators
Landscape Architects
Building Officials
Developers
Policy Analysts and more...

With presentation topics such as:

Municipal Administration
Collaboration
Challenges and Innovation
Service Provision
Sustainability
the Future and others...

At any scale!

Street or Block
Municipal Rural Regional
or Individual Professional
