

Planning Talks on Tap

INFILL DEVELOPMENT

Christopher Kailing

Chris is a partner at 1080 Architecture, Planning and Interiors. He focuses on sustainable principles, passive design strategies, and building envelope technologies.

He is the founder of Regina Advocates for Design (RAD).

Councillor Andrew Stevens

Councillor Stevens represents Ward 3 in Regina, which includes the Cathedral and Downtown neighbourhoods.

Professor Vanessa Mathews

Professor Mathews' research focuses on heritage, urban planning, gentrification, and craft beer.

She teaches the Urban Geography and Urban Planning courses at the University of Regina.

Please register at sppi.ca as space is limited!

DETAILS

November 29, 2018

7:00 pm

Cathedral Social Hall, 2062 Albert Street, Regina