The Saskatchewan Ministry of Government Relations is seeking a motivated professional community planner with excellent problem solving, communication, analytical and leadership skills to fill the role of Planning and Legislative Consultant in the Community Planning branch in Regina or Saskatoon.

The successful candidate will be part of the Regional and Provincial Interest unit.

Reporting to the Director of Regional Planning, you will be responsible to:

- Review and prepare amendments to The Planning and Development Act, 2007, and its associated regulations;
- Build relationships with municipalities, First Nation and Métis communities, and industry to advance Saskatchewan's Growth Plan;
- Participate in planning initiatives at the provincial, regional, and municipal levels to coordinate and align services with future population and economic growth;
- Support regional, inter-community and municipal planning efforts to address growth and development opportunities and challenges;
- Provide professional and technical advice on a variety of community and land use planning matters; and
- Develop and deliver educational resources to build regional, inter-community and municipal capacity for land use planning and service delivery.

Typically, the knowledge, skills and abilities required for this position will be obtained by the completion of a degree in rural/urban/regional planning or a related field, combined with several years of land use planning and policy experience at a provincial, regional or municipal level. Preference will be given to those with full membership in the Saskatchewan Professional Planners Institute and the Canadian Institute of Planners.

Candidates are asked to clearly describe in their resume or cover letter where they have gained the knowledge and abilities required for the position. Selections for interviews will be made on the basis of this information.
